REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

In an electronic equipment or its method of operation having means to alter its operation from before to after an operation control based on a timer reservation set by a user of the equipment, and further having a set-time control cancellation feature for cancellation thereof, the particularly claimed cancellation interactive interface having: a display means (see Figs. 4B & 8) for displaying operation means for use in operating the electronic equipment, display control means for controlling the display means so that when the electronic equipment is operative in accordance with operation control means, a predetermined display is carried out on the display means, and means for detecting designation of the user with respect to the predetermined display (i.e. detecting selection of the predetermined display) so that the operation control means neglects the set time control and operation of the electronic equipment before said operation control is continued in the manner claimed, is not sufficiently taught or suggested by the prior art.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
